

Missing the festival season? Why not hold a mini festival at home with friends

Plan a money is no object trip – where would you go?

Cook or get a takeaway of the cuisine from the place you would have been going on holiday

Not able to go away? Camp out in your garden for a night or two

Make a list of the things you are looking forward to doing next summer & start saving for them

Continue to stay connected with friends & family with video calling

Super Summer

Turn your living room into a tent, hotel room, den and spend the night in there

Treat yourself to a meal out at your favourite restaurant

Challenge yourself to walk, run, swim, cycle a set distance over the summer

Are you missing the spa? Why not have a pampering evening at home

Visit a local business or attraction that is just reopening

Got leave but can't go away? Why not see how you can help your community while you are off

Visit somewhere new – either locally or further afield

Have a virtual beach party with

Plan a day out for each week of the summer holidays

Organise a summer street party with your neighbours/ community

Visit someone you know who has been shielding

Have fish and chips by the sea or in your garden if you can't get to the beach

Visit that museum you have always wanted to go too even if you do it virtually

Don't flock to a crowded beach try and find a hidden cove

Make a boredom jar – have a jar full of activity ideas whenever you are bored pick out an activity

Have a UK based holiday

Meet friends for a picnic somewhere you haven't been before

Explore the beautiful UK with a coastal or national park walk

Offer to have a walk with someone on the shielding list when restrictions change

Look at a world map - pick a destination you have never been to & plan to visit once this is all over

Have a night away somewhere you love going

Get a bag of sand and make a beach area in your garden

Have friends round for drinks or BBQ

Visit a relative you haven't seen since before lockdown