South Gloucestershire Mapping Tool

This South Gloucestershire Council mapping tool supports the identification of services that support children, young people and families.

Sometimes finding out what is available to support children and families can be challenging.

We hope this will be an excellent signposting tool for professionals and members of the public.

Stop Adult Abuse Week 2022

Monday 21st – Friday 25th November 2022

There are FREE workshops available each lunchtime during the week

This year's theme is 'Responding to Contemporary Safeguarding Challenges'

Book to attend a workshop here

Stop Adult Abuse Week is a combined campaign across the region including the Safeguarding Adults Boards in South Gloucestershire, Bristol, Somerset, B&NES and North Somerset.

Make a note of it in your calendar today.

Local Authority Designated Officer (LADO)

In South Gloucestershire the LADO is Tina Wilson. Tina is the person who supports people from all organisations when there is an allegation about someone working or volunteering with children.

There is information about the processes and when to contact the LADO on this page of the Partnership website.

Contact the LADO 01454 868508 or email the LADO

Child Protection in Sports

The NSPCC's Child Protection in Sport Unit (CPSU) has released an updated version of its free e-learning course on keeping children safe in sport. The course is designed to help parents understand their own safeguarding role and what to do when concerned. Training covers recognising signs, listening to children and speaking out.

Take the course: Keeping your child safe in sport

Clare's Law

Do you know about the Domestic Abuse Disclosure Scheme? Would you know how to help someone access this and could you support someone to find out about the abusive past of a partner?

Clare's Law is a National Police Policy giving people the right to know if their current or ex-partner has any previous history of violence or abuse.

All the information is available here

You can contact the police on 101 to ask for a Clare's Law Disclosure – anyone can call if they are worried.

Avon and Somerset Police have information about the scheme here

South Gloucestershire Domestic Abuse Services – Recommissioning Consultation

This consultation went live last week and is open for 8 weeks.

Recommissioning Domestic Violence and Abuse Services - South Gloucestershire Online Consultations \(southglos.gov.uk\)

We would like to encourage service users, frontline staff, stakeholders, providers and those in the community to give us their views on our commissioning intentions.

Exploitation Training Opportunity – Working with Parents

Are you currently working with parents and or families where children are being exploited or who are at risk?

Would you like to develop your skills and tool kit further to enable you to do effective direct work with them?

Would you like to develop a better insight into how parents cope and feel in this situation and how you can effectively support them?

Then if so, don't delay - click here to book today...

If you would like to be added to the distribution list for newsletters or have something you would like to include in a future edition please get in touch with Sarah Taylor here
