

top tips

to help keep your loved ones
safe online

Number 2

Number 1

Talk. Make sure young people are aware that there are radicalisers online looking to target vulnerable people

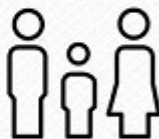

For young children, set parental controls before you hand over digital gifts

Number 4

Look out for the warning signs that someone may be being radicalised. Find out more by visiting preventtragedies.co.uk

Number 5

If you have concerns a loved one is being radicalised, call police on

Number 3

Get support and information online. There's lots of great advice out there

101

For more information, visit the NaCTSO website