Mental Health is a complex area, this document is designed as a guide to support you to find the right help at the right time for children and young people in South Gloucestershire. Please also read organisations full referral and threshold guidance and contact them for further advice. And of course, always follow your organisation safeguarding policies.

The full South Gloucestershire Children and Young People Mental Health and Wellbeing directory can be found here, we link back to this throughout the document. This document uses the THRIVE conceptual framework. A short (2m40s) video to explain the THRIVE Framework can be found here.

Depending on your IT system you may need to hold Ctrl down before clicking to access the links.

Schools play a huge part in supporting children and young people to remain mentally well, we encourage schools to let staff, parents and children know what your wellbeing offer is e.g., via school newsletters, notice boards etc.

Think carefully before referring, into a mental health focused service what do the child and family currently want and need?

4) Does the child need support getting more help?

If you're working with a child who has a severe, life changing mental health condition that is significantly impacting their life. It may be that they need extensive treatment.

If yes to (4) please see the below resources:

GETTING MORE HELP RESOURCES AND SIGNPOSTING

- Child and Adolescent Mental Health Service (CAMHS). If you are considering referring to CAMHS consult with a Primary Mental Health Specialist (PMHS) first. Children working with Families Plus or Social Care may be linked to a PMHS through these departments, please check initially with the workers. For children that do not have access through these routes all mainstream schools have a link PMHS. Professional consultations can be requested by staff using this form and need to be sent to awp.camhscommunityreferrals@nhs.net. Or where you have a direct link, you can contact your PHMS direct.
- There is a specialist CAMHS service for the following: Looked After Children (LAC) children called Thinking Aloud, CAMHS LD is the specialist learning difficulties CAMHS service. Be Safe is the harmful sexual behaviour service and Young People's Specialist Substance Misuse Treatment Service \(YPSSMTS\) is the he specialist substance misuse service.
- Think how can the multiagency team support children waiting for or receiving specialist support? Have you considered Kooth for (11–18-year-olds) or OTR (for 11-25 year olds) to support the child while waiting/ prepare the child to access support. What other support can the family/ community etc. put in place?

See directory here for more information about organisations supporting with getting more help

(5) Does the child need risk support? You may be working with a child who has a mental health condition that is severely impacting them; at this time, they may not be accessing support from specialist services and there may be concerns about their safety.

If yes to (5) please see the below resources:

RISK SUPPORT RESOURCES AND SIGN POSTING

- Risk is everyone's responsibility it is key that all agencies play a role in keeping the child safe, through a joined-up trauma sensitive, relationship-based plan.
- The 24/7 CAMHS direct crisis line number is 0800 953 9599 (for use in a crisis, rather than attending A&E or calling 999) it is available for children and young people, parents, carers, and professionals that are concerned that a child is in a mental health crisis. A&E should be used when there is physical injury that requires medical intervention and/or a serious risk of immediate harm. In some high-risk cases CAMHS can support and advise the multiagency team around risk support; even when the child and or family are not currently ready or able to access a CAMHS service.
- If you have ANY concerns about possible abuse, it MUST be reported to the Access and Response Team by calling 01454 866000 or 01454 615165 (out of hours).

Further information to consider...

Many services welcome a phone call to advise before deciding on the referral point. Please AVOID multiple referrals to same or similar support; this is generally NOT positive for children and families and reduces the capacity of services. For an example of organisation criteria please see the Mental Health Support Team document below.
