

At Missing Link we believe there could be many things that may have happened in your life which have led you to appearing in court today.

Would you like to speak in confidence about the support you need to break free from the criminal justice system?

You can speak to a female worker who can help and support you.

She can help you with

- Housing
- Lifeskills
- Health and wellbeing
- Benefits and finances
- Drugs and alcohol
- Immigration
- Caring responsibilities
- Volunteering, training and education
- Access to other services
- Support around your safety

Help is tailored to individual needs

You can ask to speak to the womens
Court Up worker on Tel: 0117 925 1811

or email
CourtUp@missinglinkhousing.co.uk

MISSINGLINK. cutting edge
women's mental health services

© Missing Link cutting edge women's mental health services

We can help and support you

We are based in Bristol Magistrates Court and we can help you to access the right support at the right time, so you can live a life free from offending.

Missing Link strives to create a culture that encourages and values everyone's differences and promotes mutual respect and shared understanding.

This leaflet is available in other languages and large type.

Missing Link is a Housing Association with charitable status, registered under the Co-operative and Community Benefit Societies Act (2014). Register No. 24218R

05_21_COURT UP ENGLISH

Womens Court Up Support Service

Telephone 0117 925 1811

For women attending Bristol Magistrates Court